

Parkinson's UK
Stafford Branch – Guest Speaker

WHAT IS NEW IN THE FIELD OF PARKINSON'S RESEARCH? HAS THIS TAKEN US ANY CLOSER TO A CURE?

A talk by

Dr Roger Barker MRCP

in the Dinwoodie Lecture Theatre

Mid Staffs Postgraduate Medical Centre at Stafford Hospital

on

Wednesday 11th April 2012 at 2.30pm

We are certain that this event will be very popular and places are limited. If want to reserve a seat please contact Michael Craddock, Secretary Stafford Branch, if possible by email to manddcraddock@ntlworld.com or telephone 01785 664324 (Please provide your name, contact email and telephone details, also if applicable your job title and place of work)

Dr Barker has been University Lecturer in Neurology and Honorary Consultant in Neurology at the University of Cambridge & Addenbrooke's Hospital since 2000. His research interests are neurodegenerative disorders such as Parkinson's. His work is supported by the Medical Research Council (MRC) and Parkinson's UK. He recently joined the MRC stem cell initiative. He is an active practising Neurologist as well being involved in teaching at both undergraduate and postgraduate level